DEATH OF MRS. ANDERSON.

Mrs. Eliza Anderson, widow of Rev. Dr. Rufus ynderson, died in Roxbury, Mass., March 11, aged 85 years. Dr. Anderson was for many years the Secretary of the American Board. He visited the Islands in 1863, and at that time re-organized the work of the Board, establishing the present basis of co-operation with the Hawaiian Board.

THE PLANTERS' MONTHLY.

The April number of this publication is now out, and like its predecessors is replete with information for planters and others. Among the more noticeable articles may be mentioned one on Hawaiian trade and Commerce for 1887, which contains some valuable statistics, taken from the Collector-General of Customs' report; also one on coffee culture, which embraces a part of the prospectus of the company being formed for the cultivation of coffee, in which are given the number of trees that can be profitably planted to the acre, the average yield per tree, and the price per pound of the product. A valuable paper on the "Chinese problem'' contains some wholesome suggestions in regard to checking this class of immigration. There are also other articles, both contributed and selected, on various subjects, which are worthy of perusal. PERSONAL. Among the arrivals by the Mariposa on Sunday last were Edwin Alsip and wife of Sacramento, Cal. Mr. Alsip has for years past conducted the largest real estate and loan agency in Central California, is prominently concerned in many extensive enterprises, including ranching, and is head, and principal stockholder in a company now engaged, with a capital of a quarter of a million, in constructing a system of electric street railways throughout about 25 miles of the capital city's thoroughfares. Too close application to business for many years, intensified by the exactions incident to the recent "boom" have necessitated a rest on Mr. Alsip's part, hence his present visit to the "Paradise of the Pacific." Mr. and Mrs. Alsip are visiting at the residence of Mr. C. W. Ashford.

MICRONESIAN NEWS. The Morning Star came up from Ruk in 43 days. Has had good weather all the voyage, and Capt. Garland brings her back in splendid condition as far as looks are concerned. Miss Fletcher talks of coming up on the next trip of the Star. The new Spanish Governor was showing a kindly spirit and wise management, yet the natives will not endure any arbitrary rule. The Mission property at Kenan was taken by the Spanish authorities, as the best land with the best harbor, for their buildings. Within a large stockade a fort of stone and mud is being built. Rev. E. T. Doane has moved into Mr. Sturges' old house at Oua. 'The people on Kusaie are reported all right. The Hawaiian missionary, Rev. W. N. Lono, on Maiana, has had an attack of fever. ONE OR TWO QUESTIONS.

EDITOR BULLETIN: -Through the columns of your journal allow me to ask one or two questions, which a remark in your issue of the 12th instant calls for.

Mr. T. R. Walker was gazetted as "Her Britannic Majesty's Acting Vice-Consul" instead of "British Acting Vice-Consul," by the Hawai-ian Foreign Office. This was, of course, a blunder of that office, as everybody knows the appointment is made by the British Commissioner, and approved by Her Majesty's Government. But why was Mr. Walker not at once appointed Vice-Consul, as Mr. Davies' resignation was called for before he left Honolulu, although he did not tender it to Major Wodehouse, preferring perhaps to hand it himself, when convenient, to the Foreign Office in London, ignoring thereby the representative here, whose appointment alone he holds?

This slight, Mr. Editor, we Britishers do not like or approve to our representative, and regret that Mr. Davies, who has had already exhausted a two years' "leave of absence," and is again gone on another two years' visit, should not have handed in his resignation voluntarily, instead of putting himself in the position of being asked to do so.

Besides, it is understood that Mr. Davies, before leaving here, accept-ed from the Hawaiian Ministers the appointment of Hawaiian Consul-General in London, his commission only requiring the King's signature, which signature His Majesty justly and wisely declined, not wishing to recall His representative at the Court of St. James without good reasons assigned. What position, therefore, does Mr. Davies hold?

ENQUIRER.

KING KALAKAUA TO THE PRINCE OF WALES. We clip the following from an English paper, which refers to the Prince and Princess of Wales' silver wedding anniversary:

Saturday's proceedings at Marlrecorded:

borough House are thus officially The Queen, accompanied by Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg and the Duchess of Albany, visited the Prince and Princess of Wales on Saturday morning to offer them their congratulations on the occasion of their silver wedding. The King of the Belgians, Prince and Princess Christian and Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Helstein, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Teck and Princess Mary (Duchess of Teck) and Princess Victoria and Princess Francis of Teck, and Duke and Duchess Paul of Mecklenburg likewise visited their Royal Highnesses for the purpose of congratulating them. The Turkish Ambassador and the Ministers of the Netherlands and Roumanis, and the Charge d'Affaires of the Hawaiian Islands, were received by the Prince and Princess of Wales to present the congratulations of their respective Sovereigns. The Charge d'Affairs of the Hawaiian Islands presented at the same time from the King and Queen a large wooden bowl mounted in silver, made from a gigantic acorn. The French Ambassador was also received to offer to their Royal Highnesses the expression of his good wishes on the part of the Pre-

the French Government. THE TOBACCO HABIT.

"In every land and in every clime where the use of tobacco prevails it causes degeneration, degradation, debasement-physical, mental and moral-disease and death, or individual and national decadence."

Such is the statement of Dr. George J. Ziegler in an article on "The Tobacco Poison" in the Sani-

"I do not believe there is any more harm in smoking a cigar or pipe after eating than there is in drinking tea or coffee. Any luxury carried to excess carries with it a penalty. For my own part, I consider that smoking acts as a sedative and equalizer of the temper, assists digestion and is a modium of sociability among men which should not be discarded."

So says Dr. A. E. Adams of Danbury, Conn., in an article entitled "Is Smoking Injurious?"

The doctors disagree, but there can be no doubt as to whose view The amended Fishery Treaty will Ruk, where he had been waiting is nearer the truth. The broad statement of Dr. Ziegler is con-

Barg'ns in Embroid'ed Dresses, tradicted not only by general experience, but by the undoubted fact that such countries as Germany and the United States, two nations which are certainly not suffering from decadence, consume three or four times more tobacco per capita than do the Spaniards or Italians, nations of by no means so vigorous a vitality. The real facts as to the influence of tobacco on the health are fairly well established, and the occasional outburst of anti-tobacco fanaticism does not affect received medical opinion. Tobacco is pernicious to growing children. Used in moderation, the majority of healthy adults can smoke it without harm. It does not in these shorten life or produce degenerative changes. Nearly onehalf of Professor Humphrey's collection of centenarians were tobacco-users. It is particularly harmless to those who live out-doors and engaged in physical work. It is particularly apt to injure those who live in-doors. The worst feature about its use is the difficulty some persons have in smoking in moderation. This is especially true of brain-workers, and it is for this reason that physicians never advise the acquirement of the tobacco habit. But among the great mass of working people the use of tobacco is apparently a harmless one .- [Medicat Record.
